

Peter Weddell-Hall
Head of Training Accreditation
Driver and Vehicle Standards Agency, Great Britain

What is a hazard?

- a developing hazard is a possible source of danger that could lead to an incident, unless you, the driver, take action by changing course or speed.

- Introduced in 2002
- 14 video clips
- 13 with 1 developing hazard
- 1 with 2 developing hazards
- Scoring window
- Cut score

(insert video clip hp030 cyclist)

(insert video clip English hp506)

- Existing looks dated
- New situations
- Ability to make changes
- Other uses
- Cost?

(insert video clip 02 motorcyclist)

(insert video clip hp741 dual)

(insert video clip hp131 car)

(insert video clip hp273 street)

(insert video clip 1703 street)

(insert video clip hp1255 train crossing)

(insert video clip hp1151 lorry and bridge)

- Situational judgement
‘To present a candidate with a hypothetical and challenging situation that they may encounter when driving’
- Training material
- Different perspectives
- ‘Journey’

Thank you,

.... Any questions?