

Use of simulators and virtual reality (VR) in professional driver training and testing

Venue: Springer Fachmedien München, Aschauer Str. 30, 81549, Munich

DRAFT PROGRAMME
09:30	Registration
09:45	Welcoming words and introduction	Jörg - Michael Satz , President, MOVING Augusta Sica , CIECA Business Manager
10:00	The current situation of the use of simulators and VR in professional driver training and testing in Germany	Josua Stigler & Ralf Vennefrohne , Vogel
10:30	How to develop further professional driving education and examination using simulators and/or VR in France	Michel Goepf , President, Codes Rousseau, France
11:00	Questions and answers	All participants
11:15	Coffee break
11:30	Practical session on car and truck simulators*	All participants
13:00	Lunch break
13:45	VR - a solution for learning or testing?	Andy Bull , Jellylearn, UK
14:15	Creation and use of virtual reality for testing driver applicants' competences: status, ongoing developments and specific tools	Lars Roessger , TÜV DEKRA arge tp 21
14:45	Progressions in the training of driving students	Kurt Bartels , Bundesvereinigung der Fahrlehrerverbände e.V.
15:15	Questions and answers	All participants
15:30	Coffee break
15:45	SIMMO Project: Use of simulators to teach motorcycle driving	Roberto Ramos , CNAE
16:15	Questions and answers	All participants
16:25	Conclusions & closing words	Jörg - Michael Satz , President, MOVING Augusta Sica , CIECA Business Manager
16:30	END OF WORKSHOP

* The aim of this session is to offer the opportunity to the participants to practice the learning targets achievable on a simulator and their impact in order to enrich the theoretical and practical knowledge on driving education.